The following gentlemen were put in nomination as the counties were called to vote, viz:

R. K. Williams, D. P. White, Geo. A. Cald-Thos. C. McCreary, Chas. A. Wickliffe, Wm. A. viz: Hooe, Jas. B. Clay, S. Scott, Timoleon Cravens, J. W. Moore, and R. H. Stanton.

So much confusion prevailed at the conclusion of the call of the counties that the Secretary was unable at the time to add up the vote for all the candidates, and reported only the vote for the seven highest on the list, viz:

Caldwell 491; White 433; Mason 417; Williams 386; Hise 386; Elliott 258; Clay 332. Considerable discussion took place upon the reported tie between Williams and Hise, and a motion for another ballot was laid upon the table.

REPORT ON STATE ORGANIZATION. Mr. Turner, from the Committee on Organization, made the following report:

Resolved, That for the purpose of a perfect organization of the Democratic party in Kentucky, in the approaching National contest, there shall be a State Central Committee to consist of ten members, to be located at Frankfort. There shall also be a Central Committee of nine members for each Congressional District.

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the State Seventh District-Joshua F. > NIGHT SESSION. Convention met pursuant to order of adjournment at 71/2 o'clock.

Mr. Anderson offered a resolution in reference tion the following list of Delegates and Electors, to the place at which the next Convention should be held-declared out of order by the Chairman. A motion was made that Judge R. K. Williams be declared the fourth delegate for the State at large, and it was moved to lay that motion on

> The Secretary stated to the Convention that since its adjournment at the evening session, he had again added the vote of the counties be tween Hise and Williams, and now reported that the statement first made by him was erroneou-, and that the correct addition gave Williams 390: Hise 385-if the vote of McLean was to be counted in the votes of Daviess and Muhlenburg, and he did not know how to separate them.

Mr. Stockdale, of Logan, thereupon moved that the election of Judge Williams, as well as of the other three having a majority of the votes cast, be declared unanimous. Carried.

ALTERNATE DELEGATES. The Convention then proceeded to the ballot for alternate delegates for the State at large, with

The Committee on Resolutions, through their Chairman, Hon. G. W. Silvertooth, made the following report, viz:

Report of Committee on Resolutions. 1. Resolved, That the Democracy of Kentucky, in Convention assembled, reaffirms its faith and confidence in the policy and principles heretofore political parties of this country, imposes upon the Democracy of the central State of Kentucky duties of the most delicate and important character; that whilst we have witnessed with constant anxiety and alarm the continued growth of the Republican parties at the North, who have assailed the character, who have confiscated the property, who have violated the Constitutional rights, and finally who have conspired against the Government and lives of the people of the South, we have, during this whole period, seen battling against them, in every State of the Union, the organized and dauntless divisions of the Demo-o'clock. cratic party; and that, whilst we fully sympathize with our Southern friends under the mutual wrongs inflicted upon us by this sectional and treasonable party, we cannot in honor abandon our noble allies in the North whilst a reasonable pe remains of vindicating our Constitutional rights and privileges by the peaceful agency of

3. Resolved, That we firmly believe (and our day, fidence increases with the increasing dangers H. M. Rust, of Greenup, moved to strike out of the country) that the Democratic party, in each of the non-slave-holding States, will, at the next Presidential election, receive constant and large accessions from the heretofore non-voting and conservative elements of the North; and that, with the South united, we will triumphantly carry that election by a majority unprecedented in the

ON THE NATURE, TREATMENT, AND RADICAL CURE OF SPERMATORRHOEA, or Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility. Nervousness, and Involuntary Emissions, inducing Impotency and Mental and Physical Incapacity.

By ROB. J. CULVERWELL, M. D.,

'Author of "The Green Book, &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without Medicine and without dangerous Surgical operations, bongies, instruments, rings, or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself, cheaply, pricately, and radically. OUR REPRINTS versus BCLECTICS, &c.

As we have for many years been paying more than $3,000 annually to the British Publishers for the matter furnished in these Periodicals, thus virtually becoming copartners with them in the profits of the Reprints, we trust the public will consider this in bestowing their patronage, and give us the preference over Eelectic and over patchwork publications, whether monthly, or weekly, which now extract so liberally from our works and pay nothing either to the Foreign Publishers or to us for the same. As to cheapness nobody can complain of paying $10 at year for the four leading British Keviews and Blackwood's Magazine, and by taking these works entire, subscribers are not obliged to be guided by others in the choice of the articles they may desire to read. Moreover, taking into consideration the style in which our Reprints are published and their acknowledged fidelity to the original editions, and also the advantage of an early issue by means of the advance Sheets—our series will be found as cheap as any of the competing publications to which we have alluded.
